City will Impose Special On-Street Parking Restrictions near Polling Locations during Primary Election

~Towing and ticketing will be enforced for unauthorized vehicles~

RICHMOND, Va. – Parking restrictions will be in place for the primary election on Tuesday, June 14 in order to accommodate chief election officers and those working the polls. On-street parking will be prohibited in the following downtown areas from 5 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Tuesday.

- Three parking meters/pay stations on the west side of the Main Library
- All parking meters/pay stations:
 - 9th Street between Broad and Marshall streets;
 - North side of Marshall Street between 9th and 10th streets;
 - South side of Marshall Street between 8th and 9th streets

In addition, from 5 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Tuesday, special parking will be designated on the north side of Palmyra Avenue, as the Hermitage Methodist Home at 1601 Palmyra Avenue is a polling site.

On Wednesday, June 15, from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m., all parking meters/pay stations around City Hall as described above will be restricted.

All restricted meters will be marked accordingly. Unauthorized vehicles will be ticketed and/or towed while these restrictions are in place.
